

I believe that it is imperative that the FCC continue it's regulation on the media conglomerates' growth and consolidation. I believe that a dual ownership of both print and broadcast media in a specific geographical area can and will destroy the competitive environment that is essential to fair journalism.